And I am perfectly cured. I keep it "All the time!"
Respectfully, I. F. BOOTH, Saulsburg, Tenn. May 4, 1883.

STORY OF A POSTAL CARD

HEADFGEL, PA., May 8, 1885. It has cured me of several discusse, such as nervousness, sickness at the stomach, monthly troubles, etc. I have not seen a sick day in years, since I took Hop Hitters. All my neighbors use them.

ASHBURNHAM, MASS., Jan. 15, 1880.

I have been very sick over two years. They all gave me up as past cure. I tried the most skill-ful physicians, but they did not reach the worst part. The lungs and heart would fill up every high and distress me, and my throat was very had, I told my thidden I should never die in peace till I had the diep Bitters. When I had taken two bottles they helped me very much indeed. When I had taken two more bottles I was well. There was a lot of side folks here who have seen how they cared me, and they used them and were cured and feel asthankful as I do that there is so valuable a medicine made.

Yours truly, MISS JULIA G. CUSHING.

"A tour to Educate that cost us $30%, done "ies good than one bottle of Hop Bittera; they "also cared my wife of fifteen years' nervous "weakness, elestlessness and dyspepsia,"—Mr. R. M., Achum, M. I.

Baby Saved.

We are so thankful to say that our musing hady was permanently cured of a dangerous and protracted constipation and irregularity of the bowels, by the ue of Hop Bitters by he nurshin mother, which at the same time restored her to perfect health and strength.—The Parents, Rochester, N. X.

The Unbealthy or inactive tidneys cause gravel, "Bright's disease, rheumatism and a horde of other cerieus and fatal diseases, which can be prevented with Hop Bitters," If taken in time.

"Luddington, Mich., Feb. 2, 1885. I have sold Hop Bitters for ten years, and there" is no medicine that equals them for billousattacks, Ridney complainte, and all diseases included to this malarial stimate.

H. T. ALKXANDER.

"Monroe, Mich., Sept. 25th, 1885. Sust:—I have been taking H pp Bitters for inflammation "of kidneys and Badder. It has done for me" what four physicians failed to do—cured me, The effect of the Bitters seemed like magic to me.

W. I. Carren. value to me. I was laid up with typhoid fever for over two months, and could get no relief antil I tried your Hop Hitters. To those suffer-ing from debility, or any one in feeble health, I cordielly recommend them. J. C. STORINSI... 638 Fulton street, Chicago, Ill.

Is there a person living who ever saw a case of ague, billousness, nervousness, or neuralgia, or any disease of the stomach, liver or kidneys that Hop Bitters will not cure?

'My Mother says Hop Bitters is the only thing that will keep her from severe attacks of paralysis and headache. —Ed. Osnego Sun.

SHERMAN'S NASH TILLE SPEECH.

Senator Sherman s speech at Nashville is enthely characteristic, it is plain, indictous, conservative, strong. There is not a touch of passion or of demagogy in it. Nothing could be more candid, straig afterward and fair than his remarks on the suppression of political rights in certain parts of the South, nothing could be more frank than his statement of the views that have actuated the more frank than his statement of the views con-have actuated the republican party, not only in the dealings with the great Southern question, but also in its treatment of other subjects of national concern with which it has grappled during the course of its long and eventful history.

As passion has now subshled and projulice begins to disappear, there is opportunity for the recubican party to commend uself to the South, and for this work there is no fitter muthan John Shorman. His caloniess and furgment, the thoroughness of his identification with the number of the comments that the comments of the comments with the rejublican party, his recognized standing as an exponent of the party's history and as a representative of the party's history and as a representative of the post purposes and aims, give him an author y for a work like this which scarcely another man can be said to posters. In commending to the South the policy of protection and of internal improvements he commends a policy his which that not of the protection and of internal improvements he commends a policy in which that part of the country, since its in natives began to revive and to obtain diversification, undoubtedly has a growing interest for, as the Birmingham (Ala.) Age, published at the new center of iron industry in the South, puts it, "The South was once practically manimous in protecting slave labor against the competition of the tree labor of manufactories, by means of low tariff; but now "it is acquiring a return to the principle of protection, substituting a high tariff to sure the protection, substituting a high tariff to sum the changed conditions of its labor."

This idea is rapidly growing throughout the South. That part of the country is fast giving in its adhesion and support to the protective system, and is becoming equally interested in system, and is becoming aqually interested in the policy of internal improvements that is the contempart of it. When therefore a man like Steman commends this policy to the south, he commends also to the fouth the republican party, by which the policy is chiefly advocated and supported. It is in the nature of things that as the South conjes to think this policy the true one for herself, she will give more of her support to the party that upholds it. In one result of iterenthese who do not assent to the philosophy of protection can rejoice—it will tend losophy of protection can rejoice—it will tend to take out of politics the sectional issue, which has been rooted so deeply in the passions en-gendered by the great strile over slarery, state sovereignty and the politics of the war period

PLACTICALLY A FAILURE

The high license act, which has passed one tranch of the New York egislature has been shorn of much of its value by the amendment which restricts is expension to cities having more than 400,000 inhabitants 'v will therefore ap-ply only to the cities of New York and Brooklyn. It ought, however, to apply to all cities of over 10,000 lubshitants. Probably it was re-stricted to the two largest cities, for the reason that if wider scope Lad been given it, it could not bave been passed at al-

And Jet it is absurd to so, that as high a tax upon sale of liquors my no be collected in Saffu-lo, Albany, Rochester, Froy and many other utiles, in the state, as in the pit sof. New York and Brockin The fact that it was only by couldn ing the tax to the two great cities that votes enough could be had to such he bill shows the extreme difficulty of the ling with the inquer question, particular y in a state which has In go

The democrat c memiers of the legal a are of New York were practically a unit against the bill from the start. It betame therefore all stantially a party measure yet at had not the support of all the republican members, and its fate seemed to be don't ful till it was so amend ed so to confine its operation to the two principal cities. Since the republicans have attempted to make it a party measure and this is the result, it may be doubted whether they will read any political advantage from it. When it is a leged by the republicana that the dem will be that they were usufied in doing so, since will be that they were usufied in doing so, since the republicans made it to apply only to the denocrutic cities of New York and Brooklyn

Before the bill took this shape the better class of democratic newspapers were reproaching their representatives in the legislature for their opposition to it. The World and Thedemo crais of the state legistature are not making a good record for their party. Their two most notable performances thus far are a solid vote in favor of repealing the civil service reform act and against higher licenses for liquor sellers But now, since the act is to apply only to the cutes of New York and Brooklyn, the democrats will have a ready excess, which with most people will pass for a sufficient one is practically a failure.

Among other questions to be decided are these relating to the extent of the free-pass n.e. vicion, to charges for detention of freight cure :- credits for freight charges, to the effect of the law on freight contracts that do not expire before April 1, to the effect of a road's propor tion of a through charge on its own local rates, to the right of roads to give a lower rate to school children than to o her children of the sume age to what are excursion tickets under the law, to the effect of the law on the express business. Channey Depow he do that excut-sion rates may be maintained under the law, and the California railway managers consider that under the law they may give passes within state lines. The N X Trebung points out that the difficulty in determining what the law means and how it will be interpreted arises out out of the fact that "the act is the result of a communical between two learned like builting only compromise between two legislative budies antmated by distinctly arrecancilable purposes." The senate bill was framed in accordance with the spirit of the Massachusetts railroad commission act, and the senate construed the present act to hibition of "higher charges for a longer than a shorter hanlage under like circumstances and modditions does not prohibit differential rates to or from competing points of to large shippers, or with respect to traffic for which the railroads must compete with water routes or with roads of Canada. The object of Resgan's house bill or Canada. The object of Resignits number on was to prevent the sort of descrimination above described, and therefore the senate's construc-tion of the present act would make it worthless to the public. The N. Granting that much of this criff run I upon grand well taken the shortest road to a slling the ceaseless changer once along the vexed question of the rights of the propie vs the rights of the railroads was to pass the left. The theoretical grievance cannot be sibored better than by the practical expe i ree of its worthlessons, if it has worthless; by showing that the useried abuses are either fauciful or, if real, caluof be more satisfactority remedied or adjusted by federal law than they can be without the law. If congress had not passed some law, the clamor and criticism would have been louder than ever. and criticism would have been louder than ever, while to-day if the public don't like their new top they will have only themselves to hame. The gospel of facts will be listened to, and when the new congress meets the commission will probably be able to make a report that will procure the accessary recasting and reconstruction of the law into a more conservative and intelligent e-actined. The country's impatience for some interference with the innertial authority and interference with the imperial authority and interference with the imperial authority and action of the great corporations was uncer rollable, and the passage of even an imperfect inadequate law was better than further inaction. The proprietor of this et shrated medicine inaily claims for it a super crity over all remedies ever offered to the put lie for the f AFE, CERTAIN, SPEEBY and FERMANENT cure of Agree and Fever, or Chillsand Pever, whether of short or long standing. He rolers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear im testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to care if the direct 'ensares' ruly followeds and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure in at whole families have been cured by a single lottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, cover, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller dost of week or two after the disease has been checked, more sappetally in difficult and long-standing cases. Senator Sherman's speech at Nashville is ensenator Sherman's speech at Nashville is en-tirely characteristic; it is plain, judicious, con-servative, strong. There is not a touch of pas-sion or of demagogy in 't. Nothing could be more candid, straightforward and fair than his remarks on the suppression of political rights in certain parts of the South; nothing could be more frank than his statement of the views that have acquained the ramphilicar parts, not only in have acquired the republican party, not only in its dealings with the great Southern question, but also in its treatment of other antipeats of national concern with which it has grappied during the course of its long and eventful history.

As passion has now subsided and prejudice begins to disappear, there is opportunity for the republican party to commend itself to the South; and for the work there is no fitter man than John Sherman. His columess and fudgment, the thoroughness of his identification with the republican party, his recognized standing as an exponent of the party's history and as a representative of its present purposes and aims, give him an authority for a work like this which scarcely another men can be said to pos-sess. In commending to the South the policy of protection and of internal improvements he-commends a policy in which that part of the country, since its inducties began to revive and to obtain diversification, undoubtedly has a growing interest, for, askie Birmingham (Ala.) growing interest; Jor, as all Himingian (Als.) 468, published at the new center of iron industry in the South, puts it, "The South was once precitedly unanimous in protecting clave labor against the competition of the free labor of manufactories, by means of low tarift," but now manufactories, by means of low tarify? but now "It is acquiring a return to the principle of protection, substituting a righ tariff to entit the changed conditions of its labor."

This dea is rapidly growing throughout the South. That part of the country is fast giring in its adhesion and support to the protective system, and is becoming equally interested in the policy of internal improvements that is the stunier part of it. When therefore a man like Sterman commends this paties to the South, he Sterman commends this pelicy to the South, he commends also to the South the republican party, by which the policy, is chiefly advocated and supported. It is in the nature of things that as the South comes to think this policy the true one for herself, she will give more of her support to the party that upholds it. In one result of iteren those who do not essent to the phi-osophy of protection can rejoice:—it will lend to take out of politics the sectional issue, which has been rooted so deeply in the passions en-gendered by the great strife over slavery, state sovereignty and the politics of the war period.

PRACTICALLY A FAILURE.

The high license act, which has passed one branch of the New York egislature has been shorn of much of its value by the amendment which restricts its operation to cities having more than 400,000 inhabitants. It will therefore apthan 400,000 imbaliants. It will therefore ap-ply only to the cities of New York and Brock-lyn. It ought, however, to apply to all cities of over 10,000 inbaliants. Probably it was re-stricted to the two largest cities, for the reason that if wider scope had been given it, it could not have been passed at all.

not have been passen at an.

And yet it is absord to say that as high a tax open sale of liquors may no becollected in Suffilo, Albany, Rochester, Troy, and many other cities in the state, as in the cities of New York and Brooklyn. The fact that it was only by confu-ing the tax to the two great cities that votes enough could be had to pass the bill, shows the extreme difficulty of dealing with the liquor uestion, particularly in a state which has large rban population.

The democratic members of the legislature of New York were practically a unit against the bill from the start. It became therefore substantially a party measure; rot it had not the support of all the republican members, and its fite seemed to be doubtfulfill it was so amended as to confine its operation to the two principal cities. Since the republicans have attempted to make it a party increases and this table are to make it a party measure and this is the result, it may be doubted whether they will reap any political advantage from it. When it is alleged by the republicans that the democratic voted solidly against it, the answer of the latter will be that they were justified in doing so, since the republicans made it to apply only to the democratic cities of New York and Brooklyn.

Hefore the bill took this shape the better class of democratic newspapers were reproaching their representatives in the legislature for their opposition to it. The World said: "The democratic of the state legislature are not making a to make it a party measure and this is the rerais of the state legislature are not making a ood record for their party. Their two most otable performances thus far are a solid vote in favor of repealing the civil service reform act and against higher licenses for liquor sellers." But now, since the act is to apply only to the clike of New York and Brooklyn, the democrats will have a ready sxouse, which with most peo-ple will pass for a sufficient one. The measure is practically a failure.

EUSINESS FOR THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION.

The merchants' committee of New York city re not satisfied with the new schedule of freightrates agreed upon by the great railroad managers in their efforts to continue to do business and yet conform to the interstate commerce law. The committee objects to two-features of the echedulo which they entitless riminate against annel and in favor of large cities, and make a protest before the commission. Mail quotes the comidate s of the merchants' committee as follows: The railroads have been obliged to make a dis-contend that the reads happ not the right, under the new law to make this diprimination.

This has a such complaint is the regulation

It has other parsons who do beam so, on stoness their charges bear a, per of the to ten end of the services they render. It is well known that a short haul costs myre in proportion than a long han, but courses dealed to the roads the right to receive componential for this extra cost. This injustes must be met in some way, and the companies have decided to make a distinction between large and small parcels.

Among other questions to be decided are those relating to the extent of the free-pass provision; to charges for detention of freight care; to credite for freight charges; to the effect of the law on freight contracts that do not expire before April 1; to the effect of a road's proportion of a through charge on its own local rates; to the right of roads to give a lower rate to school children than to ether children of the same age to what are excursion tickets under the law; to the effect of the law on the express business. Channesy Depew holds that excurelon rates may be maintained under the law. and the California railwa, managers consider that under the law they may give passes within state lines. The N. X. Tribune points out that the difficulty in determining what the law means and how it will be interpreted arises out out of the fact that "the act is the result of a compromise between two agislative bodies animated by distinctly irreconcilable purposes."

The senate bill was framed in accordance with the spirit of the Massachusetts religious comprising action of the senate. with the spirit of the mission realized commission act, and the senate construed the present act to mean that the prohibition of "higher charges for a longer than shorter haplage under like throughtness and conditions does not prohibit differential rates to or from competing points or to large shippers, or with respect to traffic for which the railroads smut compete with water routes or with roads of Canada." The object of Resgan's house bill was to prevent the sort of ciscrimination above. described, and therefore the sensie's construction of the present act would make it worthless to the public. The N. Y. Graphic is of the spinion that the act would result in increasing ially reducing the rates for short hauls. In vindication of the railroads the Graphic anys:

To the superficial observer it may seem wholly wrong that a short haul should at times cost more than a long haul. Yet, if we reflect upon it, we can nuderstand clearly enough why a man hirloga carriage for an hour in New York city pays as much for it as for a licket on the fast express train from New York to Albapy. Before the Etle cand was built the transportation of a ton of freight between Bullalo and New York cost about $160 and consumed about twenty days. ground well taken, the shortest rear to quantum the conseless change coupering the vexed ques-tion of the rights of the people vs. the rights of the railroads was to pass the act. The theoreti-cal grievance cannot be silenced better than by the practical experience of its worthlessessiff it he worthless; by showing that the reserved abuses are either faucitud or, if real, caunot be more satisfacturity remedied or adjusted by fedmore satisfactorily remeited or adjusted by federal law than they can be without the law. If congress had not passed some law, the clamor and criticiam would have been louder than ever; while to-day if the public don't like their new too. while to-day if the public don't like that naw top they will have only themselves to blame. The gospel of facts will be listened to, and when the new congress meets the commission will probably be able to make a report that will procure, the necessary recasting and reconstruction of the law into a more conservative and intelligent exactment. The country's impatience for some interference with the imperial authority and action of the great corporations was uncontrolable, and the passage of even an imperied; inlable, and the passage of even an imperfect, inadequate law was better then further inaction. If the people are extrayagent, ignorant and unreasonable in their complaints and criticiem a year or two of working experience under the law will clear the way for a reasonable act in the future better than anything else; for no up men, who cannot be sonyinged of error by legic are carringed by the failure of their theories to be justified by practical experience.
